

The search component provides basic search functionality for the information contained in your core components. Many third part extensions also can be searched by the search component.

Help